

How to Sign Up for Nixle

The Sonoma County Sheriff's Office uses Nixle to notify you of emergencies, severe weather alerts, and newsworthy incidents. Nixle is free and takes just a couple minutes to sign up. The Sheriff's Office encourages you to empower yourself with information.

1. Go to www.nixle.com
2. Enter your zip code. See which public safety agencies use Nixle in your neighborhood.
3. Click the green "Sign Up" button at the top of the page.
4. Enter all your information. The more contact information you provide, the easier your public safety agencies can reach you. Click "Continue."
5. Enter your home address so you get notices when something happens near your home. Click "Continue."
6. Click "Go To Nixle."
7. You are signed up! Now you'll see four tabs in the upper right corner. You should go through each tab to customize how you receive notices.
 - "Home" shows all the notices you've received.
 - "Locations" lets you enter other locations where you would like to receive notices like your kid's school or your job.
 - "Settings" lets you decide which agencies you want to receive notices from, and how you want to receive notices; text and/or email.
 - "Account" lets you pick your language, add/change your landline and cell phone numbers for voice and text messages, and add/change your email.
